

Nativity Star Advent/Winter 2013

From Father Jack:

Nativity Parish: A Shortcut Home

Nativity's 50th Anniversary kick-off is fast approaching! Did you know a parish can never celebrate too much? It's important we 'make a little noise,' lest the Lord's presence be taken for granted—even during sacred times like Lent. Of all the people who cut through our lot, how many do you suppose notice our church and know why we're here?

- The Church exists to proclaim and explain the Word of God. We find answers to life's challenges in God's Word—plus strength, comfort, peace and much more.
- The church is the Body of Christ, in each other as community and also in the Eucharist. No amount of spirituality outside the church can fulfill the longing and fuel the spirit like the sacraments. Nothing else has the power to make God's presence real.
- With today's families scattered around the country, it's more important than ever to support one another as a community of believers.
- Faith is fostered among friends in Christ. Together, we live out that faith through works of charity: love in action.

If Nativity’s parking lot is a shortcut home, let’s steer people toward the church and home to God by making our parish attractive and welcoming. How might you invite others to come and experience the joy we share in our Lord?

We’re called to make such a joyful noise that, instead of being a community drive-through, Nativity of Our Lord Parish becomes a place where people want to stop, eat in, and experience our joy.

Fr. Jack

“How might you invite others to come and experience the joy we share in our Lord?”

P.S. I am eager to see you at the Kick-off Masses January 25-26: On Saturday an intimate celebration and lasagna dinner at Nativity after the 5:00pm Mass. On Sunday, experience the nostalgic “Mass on the Ice” at the arena, just like Nativity’s first Mass 50 years ago. Details in this newsletter and upcoming bulletins.

Remember †he Past, Celebrate †he Present, Believe in †he Future

In 2014, October 15 will mark 50 years since Bishop Stanislaus V. Bona appointed Father Alfred M. Lison to start Nativity of Our Lord Parish. We have such a rich history and much to Remember.

Over the years, thousands of people have joyfully given of their time, talent and treasure to make Nativity of Our Lord Parish one of the largest and most vibrant parishes in the Diocese. We have much to Celebrate.

Built on the new Vatican II insight that the Church IS the people, Nativity’s people have left an unstoppable legacy of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and the Paschal Mystery: You’ve passed on tremendous hope and faith in which Ashwaubenon’s Catholic community of the future can Believe!

It’s essential we make time to remember our past, celebrate the present and believe in our future in the spirit of Ecclesiastes’ “There is an appointed time for everything . . .”

During our yearlong celebration, we:

- Remember our foundation: the 465 families whose hard work and dedication laid the foundation on which we built our traditions of faith.

- Celebrate the faith-filled community of Nativity Parish on October 15, 2014 and the joy of serving God by ministering to the physical and spiritual needs of one another.
- Believe in the future of our parish and help sustain the legacy entrusted to us for future generations.

Nothing would make me happier than to see droves of Nativity’s members—regardless of the last time you attended Mass—sharing in the numerous events commemorating our 50th Anniversary throughout 2014. Round up your family and show them what Nativity was like 50 years ago. Too often, our children don’t realize how important it is to know your story, your past—their heritage of faith—until it’s too late to pass it on.

Nativity is blessed with a dedicated parish community. I deeply appreciate and thank you for the traditions of faith, past, present and future! I can’t begin to express how much I look forward to celebrating our 50th Anniversary with all our members. Just as Nativity was a new parish after new Vatican II insights, Nativity Parish anticipates a new rebirth!

Fr. Jack

Nativity Nurses Screen Blood Pressure Sunday Mornings

One weekend a month, six Nativity Parish nurses will be available to take your blood pressure before and after Masses. Pooling together a combined total of over 200 years in nursing, these nurses say high blood pressure (a.k.a., hypertension) is a silent killer that should be monitored at every opportunity—and what better time than Mass for one-stop care for body and soul?

Just as in volunteering their time for this, the lives of these inspiring Nativity parishioners are the essence of Stewardship as a way of life through prayer, service and sharing:

Terry Maloney spent most of her 42 years as a nurse in the neo-natal ICU unit at St. Vincent's hospital, caring for the most helpless of all: babies too underdeveloped to make much noise. "I said many prayers for the babies and their families," she said.

All the nurses lived lives of service to others in need. Doris Vandermeulen was an LPN for 41 years, after which she volunteered for hospice for another seven years. "I think everyone should try hospice—it was such a privilege to be trusted" by people who put their lives in her hands.

JoAnn Euclide worked for years in the cardiac/critical care unit at Bellin hospital, then used her talents in insurance, and now retired, she serves as a patient advocate at Aurora. "Nursing is really a calling, not a job," JoAnn shared.

"As a nurse. . . you're given a unique perspective on the spiritual, intellectual, physical and emotional components, all at once. I feel tremendously blessed to be a nurse."

—Jeanae Behnke (right)

Jeanae Behnke, who also donated some of the equipment, worked in oncology, where she grew close to her patients. "As a nurse, you have a whole different vision and knowledge," Jeanae shared "You're given a unique perspective on the spiritual, intellectual, physical and emotional components, all at once. I feel tremendously blessed to be a nurse."

Joan Ladwig, who spent her nursing career at St. Vincent's in surgery and anesthesia, is on Nativity's Stewardship Committee where the idea came to her. Having your blood pressure screened at Nativity is a great opportunity to meet these joy-filled women of quiet faith, who share a special camaraderie with one another.

When you've inhaled the essence of a warm newborn, seen suffering and worked beside doctors, when you've held the hands of patients and heard what they've tearfully confided—who else but other faith-filled nurses can relate? Yet, despite the challenges, nursing for all these amazing women is an experience of reward and great joy. Nativity's stewardship nurses know no other way to live than to be God's hands, feet, eyes and ears—His very heart. How blessed we are to have them at Nativity Parish!

Nativity's sixth nurse volunteer is Mary Beth Fisher, who wasn't available for an interview or photos, but don't let that stop you from getting to know her and all the other wonderful nurses at Nativity! For the next screening times, watch the bulletin, website www.nativityparish.com or call Nativity at 499-5156.

The ill person is able to bear suffering bravely, and fight against it.

The whole person is helped and saved, sustained by trust in God.

If beneficial to salvation, a return to physical health may follow.

Excerpted from The Church's Pastoral Care of the Sick

Who may receive Anointing?

- Anyone with health issues or sick
- All facing or recovering from surgery
- People with mental afflictions
- The elderly
- All seeking healing and positive life direction
- The spiritually down-trodden

All who need:

- peace of mind to quiet anxieties and fears.
- God's Spirit to conquer temptations to despair and doubt.
- increased confidence and faith in God.
- God's comfort and strength in a difficult situation.

How often may I receive Anointing?

As often as you feel is necessary.

Nativity invites all in the process of healing to receive The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Conferring the Grace of the Holy Spirit for Healing
December 29, 2013 -- Immediately after 8:30 Mass

Is Anointing of the Sick offered at other times?

Yes, whenever there is a 5th Sunday in a month. The dates in 2014 are March 30, June 29, August 31 & November 30. When possible, the sacrament should be celebrated with members of the family.

What happens during anointing?

Using a generous amount of oil, a priest anoints the person on the forehead and hands, and says a short prayer of blessing and healing. The recipient holds his palms up, responds "Amen," and gently rubs in excess oil.

Other sacraments with healing effects:

Reconciliation (a.k.a. Confession or Penance)

When? 4:00 Saturday or by Appointment

A contrite heart and a willingness to face one's negative feelings, in conjunction with the absolution and blessing of the priest, contribute to an intense inner healing wherein lightness of heart and the joy our Lord intends for us is often experienced soon after the sacrament.

Eucharist (that is, the Body and Blood of Christ)

When? During Communion at Mass

(Mass Times: Saturday, 5:00 pm; Sunday, 8:30 & 10:15 am)

In the intimate act of taking Christ within ourselves, our human weakness is re-energized and empowered with the loving spirit of Our Lord.

Do you need someone to talk to and walk with you in troubled times? Stephen Ministers are specially trained to walk with you on your journey toward healing.
